

InCite Logix, LLC - Privacy Policy

Protecting your private information is our priority. This privacy policy governs your use of the www.incitelogix.com website, owned by InCite Logix LLC (inCite/we/us), and includes a legal tech pulse check. We want you to know what data of yours will be collected and how that data will be used.

What Information Does the Website Obtain and How is it Used?

User Provided Information – We obtain the information you provide when you download and register your details on www.incitelogix.com.

When you register with us, you generally provide: (a) your name, email address, age, user name, password and other registration information; (b) transaction-related information, such as when you use the website; (c) information about your company, such as company name, type of business, number of employees, business locations and other company information; (d) other information you enter into our system when using the website, such as answers to the questions generated by the website.

Automatically Collected Information – In addition, we may collect certain information automatically, such as: the type of operating system and/or mobile device you use, your mobile device's unique device ID, the IP address of your PC or mobile device, the type of Internet browsers you use, and information about the way you use the website.

What Do We Do with the Information We Gather?

We use your information to provide you with an artificial intelligence readiness assessment and prescriptive analytics based on the assessment. We may use the information to contact you from time to time to provide you with important information, required notices, information about other products and services, and to complete your payment and transactions.

We also collect and compile data and information related to your use of the website and use it in an aggregate and anonymized manner, including to compile statistical and performance information related to the operation of the websites and to form the basis of benchmarking against other user organizations (the "Aggregated Data"). We may (a) make Aggregated Data publicly available in compliance with applicable law; and (b) use Aggregated Data to the extent and in the manner permitted under applicable law.

Does the Website Collect Precise Real Time Location Information of the Device?

This website does not collect precise information about the location of your laptop or mobile device.

Do Third Parties See and/or Have Access to Information Obtained by the Website?

Yes. We will share your information with third parties only in the ways that are described in this privacy statement.

We may disclose User Provided and Automatically Collected Information.

1. as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena, or similar legal process.
2. when we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request.
3. to our trusted service providers who work on our behalf, do not have an independent use of the information we disclose to them, and have agreed to adhere to the rules set forth in this privacy statement.
4. to entities affiliated by common ownership to InCite Logix LLCs.

5. if InCite Logix LLC is involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of its assets, we may share your information with a party to the transaction and you will be notified via email and/or a prominent notice on our website of any change in ownership or uses of this information, as well as any choices you may have regarding this information.

What Are My Opt-out Rights?

You can easily stop all collection of information by not entering your details on the Website.

Data Retention Policy, Managing Your Information

We will retain User Provided data for as long as you use the website and for a reasonable time thereafter and will retain non-identifying Aggregated Data indefinitely. If you would like us to delete User Provided Data that you have provided via the website, please contact us at neal@incitelegaltech.com and we will respond in a reasonable time. Rather than delete your data, we might de-identify it by removing identifying details. Please note that some or all of the User Provided Data may be required in order for the website to function properly, and we may be required by law to retain certain information.

“Do Not Track” Signals

The website does not support “Do Not Track” browser settings and we do not change our practices in response to a “Do Not Track” signal in the HTTP header from a browser or mobile application.

Children

We do not use the website to knowingly solicit data from or market to children under the age of 13. If a parent or guardian becomes aware that his or her child has provided us with information without their consent, he or she should contact us at JohnL@incitelogix.com. We will delete such information from our files within a reasonable time.

Security

We are concerned about safeguarding the confidentiality of your information. We provide physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect information once it is received from you. For example, we limit access to this information to authorized employees, service providers, and contractors who need to know that information in order to operate, develop or improve our website and/or our product and services. You are responsible for the security on your PC or mobile device and actions you take may affect security. Please be aware that, although we endeavor to provide reasonable security for information we process and maintain, no security system prevents all potential security breaches.

Changes

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time for any reason. You are advised to consult this Privacy Policy regularly for any changes, as continued use is deemed approval of all changes.

Your Consent

By using the website, you are consenting to our processing of User Provided and Automatically Collected information as set forth in this Privacy Policy now and as amended by us. “Processing,” means using cookies on a computer/hand-held device or using or touching information in any way, such as collecting, storing, deleting, using, combining and disclosing information
